DETAILED ACTION

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kasahara (JP 6-299863 A) in view of Scheufler (US 3,449,032). Kasahara discloses an engine accessory (oil pump) drive arrangement as claimed invention except for the reinforcing element as acknowledged on page 2 of applicant's specification. Scheufler teaches that it is known to provide a reinforcing element (e.g. ring segment 3 in Fig. 1) for bearing support. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the engine accessory drive arrangement of Kasahara to include a reinforcing element, as taught by Scheufler, to support the oil pump, in order to strengthen the bearing support.

Art Unit: 3747

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 5-10 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
